

THE THIRD ANNUAL EMS CON-ED DAY

BASICS PLUS

WHEN: Saturday, May 20, 2006
7:45 AM to 4:45 PM

WHERE: Haverling School, Bath

WHAT: Approved for 8 Hours of EMS
Continuing Medical Education Credits

WHO: All Emergency Medical Services Providers

PRESENTATIONS

ON: Airway Emergencies
Circulation Emergencies
Meth-Labs
EMS Recruitment and Retention*
Electronic PCR'S
EMS Vendors

*This brand new EMS SERVICE MANAGEMENT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM has been approved and unanimously endorsed for Continuing Medical Education Credits by the Southern Tier Medical Advisory Committee and the Southern Tier Regional Emergency Medical Services Council. This Recruitment and Retention Class is a part of the first level of our new EMS Leadership, Management and Personal Development Training Opportunities. It was designed with your recruitment and retention needs in mind.

A Delicious
Free Lunch will be available for all attendees

AGENDA

7:45 AM Registration & Coffee CAFETERIA

8:30 AM Dr. Jack Davidoff AUDITORIUM
Emergency Physician, Medical Director, EMT-Paramedic Dr. Davidoff will lecture on Airway. Patients can't live without one! Dr. Davidoff will discuss airway management in medical and trauma patients. From basic airway maneuvers to more advanced airway management techniques.

10:00 AM BREAK See our vendors and displays

10:30 AM Dr. Jack Davidoff AUDITORIUM
Dr. Davidoff will discuss emergency issues involving patients and Circulation. Blood goes round and round, and when it stops – then you've got trouble! When it doesn't work right ~ lives are in the balance. We'll be discussing the body's circulatory system, methods to assess its status, and tips and techniques to support the circulatory system in medical and trauma situations

12:00 Noon DELICIOUS FREE LUNCH AVAILABLE

1:00 PM Linda Lathrop, E.M.T. and Training Manager for JET AUDITORIUM
Recruitment and Retention of EMS Volunteers
This new course has been approved and unanimously endorsed for Continuing Medical Education Credits by the Southern Tier Medical Advisory Committee and the Southern Tier Regional Emergency Medical Services Council. The class is a part of the first level of our new EMS Leadership, Management and Personal Development Training Opportunities. It was designed in direct response to volunteer needs.

2:00 PM BREAK See our vendors and displays

CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS

2:20 PM Dr. John Robshaw, MD (TBA)
Board Certified in Family Practice and an Emergency Department Physician at St. James Mercy Hospital. Patient Packaging- Discussion will be the importance of patient packaging and review actions and techniques for preparing patients for transport while minimizing risk of aggravating existing injuries.

Linda Lathrop, E.M.T. and Training Manager for JET AUDITORIUM
Recruitment and Retention of EMS Volunteers

3:20 PM BREAK See our vendors and displays

3:40 PM Steuben County Sheriff's Department (TBA)
METH-LABS: How Close Are They?

Linda Lathrop, E.M.T. and Training Manager for JET AUDITORIUM
Recruitment and Retention of EMS Volunteers

4:45 PM CONCLUSION

Recruitment and Retention is a three CME course.

RSVP

by Wednesday May 10, 2006

Simply return the attached response card, or by phone at 607-794-0759 or 607-664-2700

This program made possible by a contribution from Rural Health Community Systems, Inc. and is FREE to all active EMS Providers.

Yes I will attend

the May 20, 2006 Third Annual EMS Continuing Medical Education Day Basics Plus

Name: _____

Email address: _____

Phone: _____

Corps Name: _____

Cut along dotted line, affix 39¢ stamp, and mail back today, or fax back to: 607-776-3334

Growing EMS in Steuben County

www.rhcsys.org

Cut along dotted line

Cut along dotted line